

WIFE GETS DECREE ON CROSS-CHARGE

Custody of Children Also Given Her After Court Hears Stories.

Accusations of habitual drunkenness and cruelty were exchanged by Michael Deszich and his wife, Katherine, when the husband's petition for a divorce in Superior court No. 1 was set aside in favor of his wife's cross-complaint and she was given the custody of the children after a hearing by Judge Chester Montgomery, Wednesday.

In answering her husband's charges that she had thrown dishes at him and chased him with a knife, in addition to being continually intoxicated, Katherine Deszich told the court that her husband had come home drunk one night and knocked her senseless by hitting her over the head with the butt of a shotgun while she was asleep.

Deszich said that his wife exercised her muscles by throwing furniture at him and used abusive and vile language on him.

In addition to the alleged "shotgun knockout" received by the wife, which blow kept her in bed for two weeks, the wife testified that her husband had had relations with other women.

Deszich was ordered to pay his wife $10 a week for the support of their children, Elizabeth and Robert, five and three years old, respectively, and $100 attorney fees. Previous to the divorce the husband had been arrested on contempt of court for ignoring an order to pay his wife separate maintenance money.

Start Work This Fall on

Tippecanoe Country Club

MILFORD, Ind., Nov. 22.—Construction work on the golf course of the Tippecanoe Lake Country club, expected to be one of the finest in the state, will be started this fall, according to announcement here by those in charge of organization of the club.

The announcement that the course will be designed by George A. O'Neill, in collaboration with Mr. Rosemond and Jack Croake, definitely assures a course of exceptional merit. The architect of several of the best courses in the country and formerly a professional of very high standing, Mr. O'Neill is internationally known as a golf authority.

While it had been originally planned to start work on the Tippecanoe course next spring, it has just been decided to start work at once so that nine holes will be available by next June.

Mr. O'Neill has also consented to act as chairman of the greens committee so that he will be in a position to closely supervise the actual construction work.

Globe Trotter to Appear in Lectures at First M. E.

One of the most unique institutions ever offered in this city will be the "Round the World Exposition" to be held in the parlors of the First Methodist church Thursday and Friday.

A. L. Flude, the world trotter, is in charge. He is bringing with him nearly 300 large mounted photographs, sufficient to make a wall display of over 400 feet in length. They are done in sepia and hand painted in color. Opposite descriptive matter upon each mounting makes it possible for everyone to understand just what the photographs represent and gives a new and definite idea of Oriental life, customs and scenery.

An outstanding feature of the exposition will be the great number of Chinese and Japanese curios and embroideries on display.

Mr. Flude will lecture both afternoon and evening during the two days of the exposition. He has the rare gift of always seeing the humorous side of life, which makes his lecture a joy to his listeners.

C. of C. Traffic Manager Attends Chicago Meet

J. C. Orewiler, traffic manager of the South Bend Chamber of Commerce attended a hearing at the Great Northern hotel, Chicago, Monday and Tuesday of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The business before the commission was the proposed cancellation of proportional rates on petroleum and petroleum products from the Mississippi river crossings and Chicago on shipments originating in points west of the Mississippi destined to central freight association territory. At present these rates are under suspension.

The cancellation of these rates by the railroads was made to satisfy a complaint filed by various refiners at East St. Louis, Roxana, and Lawrenceville, Illinois and would increase rates to Indiana consumers about two cents a hundred pounds. South Bend consumers are affected on the routes over which their cars would travel.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings relief from the itching, burning and irritation. Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv.

LANDIS DELIVERS MEMORIAL ADDRESS FOR FRANK BACON

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—(By U. P.)—Friends of Frank Bacon today said their last farewell to "Lightnin' Bill" in the Blackstone theater where he experienced his greatest success.

Services were held for the author and actor of the role in "Lightnin' Bill" from which he retired only a few days before his death.

Judge K. M. Landis, the favorite golf partner of the deceased actor, delivered the memorial address. His voice choked with emotion as he voiced praises of "Lightnin' Bill."

The services were conducted by Richard Baker, Christian Science reader.

Alexander Gunn, Pianist, to Give Public Recital

Complimentary Program at High School Auditorium Friday Evening.

The general public is invited to the recital by Alexander Gunn, distinguished American pianist, assisted by Penelope Davis, soprano, which is to be given in the high school auditorium Friday evening at 8:15. This announcement of the general nature of the invitation is complimentary because through error in one of the announcements it was stated that admission, though complimentary, was to be by invitation only.

"We want it distinctly known that the public in general, and particularly those who love good music, are welcome to attend this complimentary recital," said J. F. Boyer of the Boyer Music Co., under whose auspices the artists are appearing in South Bend.

Mr. Gunn, who is one of today's really great pianists, gave a short program before the high school at its regular assembly Wednesday morning and won enthusiastic applause. He will also play before the Kiwanis club at the Thursday noon meeting in the Oliver hotel.

The appearance of these artists has been arranged through co-operation of the Music Committee of the National Council and the Boyer Music Co. of this city. Mr. Boyer, who established the Boyer Music Co. at 201 S. Main st., in the Jefferson hotel building, several months ago, arranged the appearance of the artists as a compliment to the people of the city, and is anxious therefore that those interested in good music accept the general invitation to the recital in the high school Friday evening.

A joint recital by Alexander Gunn, pianist and Miss Penelope Davis, mezzo soprano will be given by the J. F. Boyer Music company, whose temporary offices are at the Jefferson hotel, Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock, in the main dining room of the Oliver hotel.

Miss Davis' program will consist of two groups of songs, the first including an aria from Herodias, by Massenet and 'J'ai pleuré en Rive,' by Hue, and the second made up from American composers.

"Inter nos," by McAdams, "De ole and a movin'," by Goun and "Dawn in the Desert" by Gertrude Ross, are representative numbers.

Competition Keen Over New Junior "Y" Members

The membership drive of the Y. M. C. A. is in full swing with the rivalry between the teams increasing rapidly. Robert Doolittle's team is in the lead with Preston Golden and his workers running a close second.

Thirty-six of the campaign workers met at a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday noon to discuss the campaign.

Open house is maintained every afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock. Tuesday afternoon about 500 boys enjoyed the program of movies, games, a swim and eats.

Rabbits Plentiful, Hunters in Northern Indiana Say

WARSAW, Nov. 22.—Not in many years have rabbits been so plentiful in the woods and fields of northern Indiana, according to hunters. Many of the cotton tails are being killed at the very edge of Warsaw and other northern Indiana cities.

Hudson Miller, residing south of this city, shot a large red fox on his farm after the animal had killed and maimed several lambs.

HER AILMENTS ALL GONE NOW

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake, Michigan.—"About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weakness and at times was obliged to stay in bed. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle, I could see that I was getting better. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailments. You may publish this letter if you wish."

Mrs. M. SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.

There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing its merit.

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound?

Grand Old Lady of Georgia Ends Epochal Day in U. S. Senate in Haze of Glory

Mrs. Felton Says She "Wasn't One Bit Scared" As She Took the Oath That Made Her the First Woman Senator in United States; Resigns Seat in Favor of Elected Solon.

She wasn't a bit scared—America's first woman senator—when she broke every political precedent in American history by taking the oath of allegiance as a full fledged member of the United States senate.

The International News Service herewith presents exclusively her own views on that epochal "one day," spent as a senator with all the privileges of the office. Her homely philosophy on the tide of politics, the ship subsidy, woman's opportunity and her own service constitute an historical chapter in the suffrage movement.

BY MRS. W. H. FELTON.

First Woman Senator in American History.

(Copyright, 1922, by I. N. S.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—This is a grandmother's blessing on everybody for the honor given me and American women when I sat for a single day as a member of the United States senate.

My chief joy is that these blessed women of America will receive the greatest benefit. It was all so pleasantly arranged and I surely have a heartfelt of appreciation, first, for the kindness of the gentlemen from Georgia and, secondly, for all the gentlemen of the senate.

I wasn't at all excited. I have lived so long that I try to hold myself steady when the crisis is "a-coming" and I tried terribly hard to hold my bearing while I was in the senate. The oath did not jar me much. I heard it first, you see, way back yonder in 1875 when my husband first served in congress. Then we had giants in public service.

I want to think a little more to know exactly how I do feel about being the nation's first woman senator.

I don't feel any different yet and the thing that brings me most pleasure is the honor given to all woman-kind.

While I was in the senate chamber, I wasn't one bit scared. I would have argued with them. I had a speech ready and I would have made it some way. But there was no trouble, thanks to all the kind gentlemen. They were as chivalrous as "when knighthood was in flower."

In the house I was given a cheer before they cheered the president. I did not know it at first but Sen. Harris, (Democrat) of Georgia said it all was for me. That made me happy, too.

I was much pleased with the president's speech. I heartily agree with him about getting rid of our old ships and stopping the loss of the nation's first woman senator. I don't feel any different yet and the thing that brings me most pleasure is the honor given to all woman-kind.

$50,000,000 a year. I'm for the President's shipping ideas. When I got back to the senate again, I had the prompting of a speech in my mind, but I felt a little faint and hungry, too, so I had to go down to the senate restaurant for something to eat. While down there, the senate adjourned and I missed my chance to get in a speech.

I would have said something pleasant for I wanted to thank everybody for their kindness to an old grandmother. I wanted to mention a cartoon I saw during the campaign. It was in a San Antonio, Texas, paper. It represented the senate in session with all the boys sitting around and an old lady standing in the door. There was some favor of me in her and she came in without a card. The senate was in a dilemma. The headline read, "Will they ask the lady to take a chair?" I wanted to tell them about that.

George's Time. "I won't go back to make a speech because it's Mr. George's (her successor) time now. It is his seat now, but I had a breezy time while I was in it."

I think my having been admitted to the senate was a milestone for women and no one can tell when the unexpected will happen again. The side is setting strongly toward better treatment of woman all around. If women only realize the dignity of opportunity which they now have in politics, they will go forward. Especially will they help their children. My greatest happiness today comes from the overflow of happiness in others. My mission is finished. I have spent enough time here and now I've got to go home and rest. God bless you all.

(Note.—After writing this article, Mrs. Felton was gratified in her desire to make a speech in the senate. Before relinquishing her post Wednesday afternoon, the Georgia woman briefly bade farewell to her colleagues of a day and described herself as "the happiest woman in the world.")
